Monday

ARRIVE

FOR YOU

Take one slow breath. Ask yourself: What energy do I want to bring into my classroom today?

FOR YOUR LITTLE STORYTELLERS

“If your morning had a color, what color would it be?”

Encourage children to tell you why they chose their color.

YOUR NOTES

Tuesday

NOTICE

FOR YOU

Before the day gets busy, notice one small thing in your classroom you usually overlook.

FOR YOUR LITTLE STORYTELLERS

“What did you notice on your way here today?”

Let their answers lead the conversation. There are no wrong answers.

YOUR NOTES

Wednesday

LISTEN

FOR YOU

Give yourself 30 quiet seconds before the day gets loud. Listen to what's around you.

FOR YOUR LITTLE STORYTELLERS

"Close your eyes. What sounds can you hear? What could be making them?"

Listen, guess, and imagine together.

YOUR NOTES

Thursday

IMAGINE

FOR YOU

Choose one ordinary object in your classroom and look at it differently.

FOR YOUR LITTLE STORYTELLERS

“If this chair could go anywhere tonight, where would it go?”

Follow their imaginations. Ask: “And then what happened?”

YOUR NOTES

Friday

CELEBRATE

FOR YOU

Think of one moment from this week that made you smile.

FOR YOUR LITTLE STORYTELLERS

“What was your favorite part of our week? Let’s make a story about it.”

Invite the children to help build the story together.

YOUR NOTES

A LITTLE SEND-OFF

Little Stories. Big Conversations.

Storytelling doesn't always need a book, a lesson plan, or a lot of preparation. Sometimes it begins with one good question and the time to listen to the answer.

Get the Training. Tell the Story. Create the Magic.
